

Global Evidence Summit 2024!

Welcome to the March update on all things GES 2024 related!

It's been a busy month for the team with lots of activity taking place to bring you the best programme we can this September. It has been seven years since the first event in Cape Town and we have been waiting for quite some time to be able to host the second summit, so we really do hope to see you in Prague.

Abstract & Registration Updates

Abstract submissions for GES 2024 are now closed! We will contact the authors by the 30 April to inform you of your submission's outcome. Thanks so much for the overwhelming response. We can't wait to see how the programme shapes up!

“Early Bird” registration for the summit opened recently and some of you have already been taking full advantage of this!

If you want to save €165 on the standard registration fee, don't miss out on this limited opportunity. Early Bird registration closes on 13 June.

The deadline for meeting requests is Wed 10 July 2024

See the City

It's a packed week but make sure you schedule some down time to see what the historical city of Prague has to offer whilst you are in town. If you want to tick some of those tourist trips off your list, check out our social activity programme.

For all you culture vultures we have some amazing theatre and live music performances on offer. If you are feeling more energetic, fear not, there's also morning yoga and city walks to get those extra steps in! Or if you would just like to take in the beautiful scenery at a more relaxing pace, we have a gorgeous evening boat cruise where you can relax and enjoy some of the legendary Czech hospitality and live music. If all this wasn't enough, we also have our welcome reception and gala dinner evening. Visit the website for more info and to book your spot!

Announcing our Programme Partners and Co-sponsor

The summit is a quadrennial event that brings together some of the world's leading organisations in evidence-based practice, all with a shared mission to provide a platform to discuss critical issues across different sectors, including health, education, social justice, the environment, and climate change.

World Health Organization

“In this increasingly complex world, timely and trusted scientific evidence plays a crucial role in addressing global health and broader societal concerns. The Global Evidence Summit will bring together diverse partners to help us reach our goal of health for all.”

Sir Jeremy Farrar

Chief Scientist

World Health Organization

We are thrilled to be joined by six influential programme partners and the WHO as co-sponsor who will also support and facilitate communication and collaboration between all those working on the synthesis, dissemination, and implementation of evidence to promote evidence-based decision-making worldwide.
